

Terms of Service & License

Sang Hendrix Plugins

By purchasing my plugins, you agree to the following terms and conditions.

Usage Rights

- You may use the plugins in any of your commercial or non-commercial game projects.
- You may modify a non-obfuscated plugin's code to better suit your projects using any tools.
- You may use the plugins in NSFW game projects, provided they do not involve incest or underage characters.
- You may not resell, redistribute, or release the plugins (including modified versions).
- You may not use any illegal or unauthorized version of the plugins in your projects.
- You may not provide the plugin to clients as part of a game development service. Each client must purchase their own license.

For Software / Plugin Developers

- You are prohibited from copying or distributing the plugins, including their code, assets, documentation, and branding.
- You are prohibited from building or publishing your own version of a plugin by using Sang Hendrix plugins as the base. Any violation of these terms may result in legal action.
- You may not use RPG Maker Action Combat resources to promote your software/plugins without proper credit.

Legal and General Terms

- All intellectual property rights remain exclusively with Sang Hendrix. The license only grants usage rights, not ownership.
- The developer is not liable for damages or issues arising from use or inability to use the plugins.
- The developer is not liable for damages caused by illegal versions obtained outside sanghendrix.itch.io or patreon.com/SangHendrix.

License Scope

- Each license is personal and tied to a single individual.

- You may not share one license across multiple people. If you have a team, each member who directly uses the plugin must purchase their own license. Team members who do not use the plugin (e.g., marketing, artists, managers) do not need a license.
- Each licensed individual may use their license for their own game projects, but licenses cannot be transferred to another person.

Credits

- Credit should be given to "Sang Hendrix" in your project.
